

APPEALS FOR AID FOR THE CHILEANS

intense Suffering Among the Victims of the Earthquake

MINISTER HICKS REPORTS

People Without Funds to Purchase Necessities, Americans Asked to Assist.

United States Minister Hicks, now at Santiago de Chile, cabled the State Department today that the suffering throughout Chile, especially at Valparaiso, is intense, as a result of the recent earthquake. Minister Hicks makes an earnest appeal that the people of the United States immediately respond to the calls for aid made in behalf of the Chileans, whom, he declares, are without sufficient funds and sadly in need of money to furnish the necessities of life. He says that such is the urgent need for money that the contributions made in this country should be cabled the Red Cross in Chile.

Secretary of War Taft, as president of the American National Red Cross, has appointed Minister Hicks to act as the society's agent in distributing the American contributions. Minister Hicks is to contribute the money according to his own judgment, and the following New York banks have agreed to act as agents of the society in collecting and forwarding the contributions: Astor National, Battery Park National, Colonial Trust Company, Excelsior Savings, Fifth Avenue Trust Company, Merchants' National, National Bank of Commerce, Union Trust Company, United States Trust Company, Bankers' Trust Company, Chelsea Exchange, East River National, First National, the Germania, Mercantile Trust Company, Metropolitan, Union Exchange, and the United States Savings Bank.

GENTLE NOW HELD ON MURDER CHARGE

Salisbury, N. C., Man Just Released for Connection With Recent Lynching.

SALISBURY, N. C., Sept. 7.—George Gentle, acquitted of jail breaking and conspiracy with the recent lynching party here, was released this morning upon $2,500 bond to appear before the November term of court on a charge of murder in the first degree. Popular sentiment against this move was well shown when paper's bond was immediately signed by three strangers. Congressman Klutz, counsel for Gentle, prayed for his release, but Judge Ferguson said he thought the case should be thoroughly investigated.

WORST ECZEMA DOCTORS EVER SAW

Spread Rapidly Over Body—Limbs and Arms Had to Be Bandaged and Scalp Looked Dreadful—Suffered Untold Misery for Three Years—Better in Two Months

MARVELOUS CURE BY CUTICURA REMEDIES

"My son, who is now twenty-two years of age, when he was four months old began to have eczema on his face, spreading quite rapidly until he was nearly covered. We had all the doctors around us and some from larger places, but no one helped him a particle. The eczema was something terrible, and the doctors said it was the worst case they ever saw. At times his whole body and face were covered, all but his feet. I had to bandage his limbs and arms; his scalp was just dreadful. I used many kinds of patent medicines before trying the Cuticura Remedies, all to no avail.

"A friend advised me to try Cuticura. At last I consented, when my boy was three years and four months old, having had eczema all that time, and suffering untold misery. I began to use all three of the Cuticura Remedies; the Cuticura Soap helped as well as the Ointment. He was better in two months; in six months he was well; but I gave him the Cuticura Resolvent one year, using twelve bottles. I think, and always used the Cuticura Soap for bathing, and do now a good deal. He was four years old before he was well, and his skin became perfectly fair when cured. I give you permission to publish this letter for I am always glad to do good when I can. I think I have told you all there is necessary to tell." Mrs. R. L. Risley, Oct. 24, 1905. Fiermont, N. H.

Hall Caine Favors Marriage As Stimulus to Man's Work

LONDON, Sept. 7.—In these days, when newly made millionaires are casting off their wives, who have stuck to them through the struggle to success, the following expression of opinion by one of the world's foremost students of human nature on the subject, "Does Love Spoil a Man's Work?" will prove interesting:

"Does love spoil a man's work?"
"Well that depends upon the woman loved."

"If she be the wrong woman, the husband is like the man whose boat has sprung a leak—half the time that ought to be spent in making way is spent in bailing out. If she be the right woman she is much extra sail."

"One sees, of course, the obvious advantages of celibacy to pioneers like Cecil Rhodes, just as one realizes its practical necessity to priests, as well as to men who carry their lives in their hands and should think of nothing but work and duty. In the hour of peril, having wife and children is apt to make a coward of a man."

Majority Are Added Strength.

"Few men are called to the exercise of such a logical course and to the greatest number a brave woman by a man's side is an added strength."

"In the majority of cases of successful characters that have come within my own observation, the wife has been extra sail."

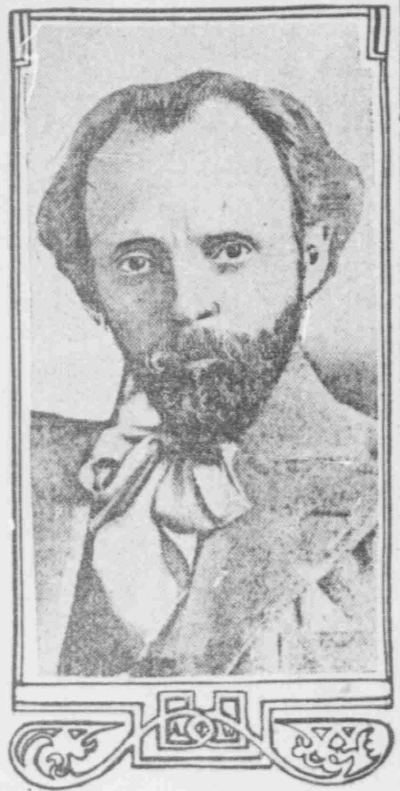

"The marriages of literary men have often been unhappy; the selfish absorption required by the literary calling is not generally helpful to domestic life. The same might be said of the marriages of painters and still more of actors, where the same conditions apply. But against the Byrons, the Shelleys, the Coleridges, the Dickenses, the Lyttons, you may well set the Brownings, the Southyses, the Scotts, the Wordsworths, and the Tennysons."

Literary Men's Simple Life Partners.

"It is obvious that some of the happiest marriages of literary men have been not to literary women, but to the sweet and simple souls who were 'Not all too good for human nature's daily food.'"

"Coming to humbler conditions of life I should say that marriages among work people generally unsettle the woman. She becomes a worse servant, but the man becomes a better servant, for the added sense of personal responsibility with the coming of wife and children makes a man more careful of his duty and more anxious to keep his place."

In the limited degree in which I am an employer and a landlord, I certainly want my men to be married."

Cases Love Helps Man in His Work.

DOG, SUPPOSEDLY MAD, SHOT BY POLICEMAN

Policeman Garrison, of the Second precinct, was called to the house at 79 N street northwest, yesterday afternoon "to attend to a mad dog." When he arrived he found that two colored men on the second floor had two stray dogs in a room. One of the dogs was growling and snapping at every one in sight. When the officer entered, the dog made a dash at him, and Garrison put a bullet through his head. It is not thought the dog was mad, but the men had become badly frightened. The dog had not bitten any one.

NEW BEDFORD, Mass., Sept. 7.—

Absolutely cured of leprosy, Mary Barros has been discharged from the State leper colony, on the island of Penikese. Mrs. Barros has been confined there for the past two years under strict surveillance of the State board of charities. The question of her final release from the custody of the State authorities will come up at the meeting of the board today. It is believed that the woman is the first sufferer from the disease who has been cured in this country. The physicians who had charge of her declare that leprosy invariably responds to proper treatment, and they entertain hopes of similar success in the cases of four other residents of the Penikese colony.

MADE TWO ATTEMPTS TO TAKE HER LIFE

Colored Woman Tries Hanging Then Swallows Rough on Rats.

Following a quarrel with her husband, Mary Barros, colored, twenty-eight years old, living at 237 C street southwest, made two unsuccessful attempts yesterday to commit suicide.

After accusing her of receiving attentions from another man her husband left the house. Shortly afterward a neighbor discovered the woman hanging to the dining room door with a telephone wire about her neck. She was cut down, but later swallowed a dose of rough on rats. The poison was pumped out at the Emergency Hospital.

PATIENT POISONED; HOSPITAL'S MISTAKE

Man at St. Luke's Given Dose of Atropine Instead of Urotropin.

CHICAGO, Sept. 7.—Poison administered by mistake to Joseph Michaels, twenty-one years old, a patient at St. Luke's Hospital, caused his death yesterday morning. The fatal blunder was made in the drug department of the hospital. Michaels was given a large dose of atropine, instead of urotropin, which had been prescribed by attending physicians.

A coroner's inquest was held in the afternoon at the hospital and the jury returned a verdict asserting that death had been caused by the administration of poison by mistake. No one was censured, but today Coroner Hoffman will make further inquiry.

LITTLE GIRL BANDITS ROB SMALLER CHILDREN

NEWARK, N. J., Sept. 7.—The police are looking for two girls each about fifteen years old, who have for the last few days successfully operated as highway robbers in the Market and Broad street shopping districts. Their victims, so far as are known, already number four little girls about their own age. They watch for children sent to stores to make purchases, follow them into the street, accuse them of having stolen money in the stores and demand that it be handed over to them.

On Friday and Saturday they got in that manner 50 cents from Fritz, ten years old, of 236 Springfield avenue; $1.50 from Lillian Sosolovick, fifteen years old, of 236 Prince street, and $1 from Hazel Arlington, twelve years old, of 553 Broad street.

DANCING MASTER SUES MILLIONAIRE FOR WIFE'S LOVE

Says His Home Has Been Dominated by Spiritualists for 10 Years.

NEW YORK, Sept. 7.—Behind the $50,000 damage suit which William Pitt Rivers, the noted dancing instructor, has instituted against Everett E. Wheeler, a millionaire liveryman, for the alienation of his wife's affections, is a domestic narrative involving chapters on spiritualism and chapters on uninvited relatives and friends.

There are other chapters in the story of Rivers' marital existence. Neither he nor his wife has addressed the other more than casually in ten years, though living under the same roof.

Waits Ten Years for Redress.

Rivers said he had waited for more than ten years to obtain reparation, because of his daughter, Rivers' trouble began when Wheeler met Mrs. Rivers. Mrs. Rivers and Wheeler regarded themselves as affiliates. Rivers says, and went driving and dining together. The dapper dancing professor protested, but to no purpose.

The professor moved his family to Mt. Clair, N. J. John Newton, his wife, and children came to visit them for a short stay. That was five years ago and the Newtons have not gone yet. Mrs. Newton is a spiritualist and she told Mrs. Wheeler thought so too. The professor protested again to his wife and she threatened to take their only child and go to California.

Prof. Rivers has decided that the time has come after twelve long years to clear the house of fortune tellers, clairvoyants and spiritualists. He has brought proceedings to oust the Newtons. Prof. Rivers said that Wheeler had run his home through his wife and that he did not have a say in anything. The professor said he will file suit for divorce after his suit for alienation has been tried.

RELIEVED FROM FURTHER PAYMENT OF ALIMONY

As a result of an agreement entered into between Patrick A. Dempsey and his former wife, Emily M. Dempsey, who some time ago procured a divorce from him, a decree was signed by Justice Gould in the local courts, relieving Mr. Dempsey from further payment of alimony to Mrs. Dempsey.

It is understood Mr. Dempsey has made provision for the support of Mrs. Dempsey and their children. Mr. Dempsey was formerly coach of the Georgetown University boat crew.

DIAZ DENOUNCES REVOLT STORIES

American Ambassador Says
Mexican Conditions Are Not Alarming.

WOULD SUPPRESS PAPER

Department of Justice Takes Steps to Stop Revolutionary Organ Regeneration, Published in St. Louis.

United States Ambassador David E. Thompson, at the city of Mexico, declares in an official report to the Secretary of State that all reports of a bitter anti-American feeling in Mexico are utterly false and without any truth. He further states that there is no dissatisfaction in Mexico against the administration of President Diaz, as has been declared in certain inspired statements emanating from a coterie of disgruntled Mexicans who have established a revolutionary junta in this country for the purpose of working up anti-Mexican enthusiasm.

President Diaz Makes Appeal.

The State Department officials regard Ambassador Thompson's report, which has just been received, as of the utmost importance. Mr. Thompson has had a long interview with President Diaz, of Mexico, during which the relations between the United States and the republic of Mexico were carefully gone over. President Diaz, so Ambassador Thompson reports, has made an earnest request of the United States Government to take steps to suppress the Mexican revolutionary junta, which is now located in St. Louis, Mo., and which publishes, Mr. Thompson declares, a revolutionary newspaper called Regeneration.

Mr. Thompson says the situation is far from critical.

Investigating Regeneration.

The State Department has already taken up with the Department of Justice the matter of legality of the publication in St. Louis of Regeneration, with a view of ascertaining what measures might be taken against the paper or its owners. Numerous telegrams have been exchanged between the State Department and Ambassador Thompson about the matter and Mr. Thompson has suggested that the publishers be dealt with by this Government as anarchists.

RECEIVER SAVES HIPPLE CONCERN; TO PAY DEPOSITORS

Dead President Tried to Insure Segal's Life for Bank.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 7.—The Real Estate Trust Company will resume business probably tomorrow or Monday. Several meetings have been held by the directors and receiver Earle, and a plan has been agreed upon.

In an interview with Receiver Earle he authorized the following statement to be made today. He is to be president of the concern and will give one hundred thousand dollars toward its organization. His acceptance is as follows: "I accept the position in the hope that the company can be saved rather than liquidated, and I have been in session with the members of the board seeking their co-operation to this end."

Under the plan the organization, depositors are to be paid the amount of their deposits in this manner. Thirty per cent of the deposits upon the reopening of the bank; thirty per cent in preferred stock guaranteed by collateral bonds; forty per cent in thirty or sixty days after reorganization. Details of the reorganization are to be settled by depositors and stockholders at a meeting to be held at once.

This procedure will not interfere with the prosecution of Segal, North, and Collingswood.

Hipple Tried to Get Insurance.

Amazing developments today in connection with the deliberate looting of the trust company, lead the authorities to believe that President Frank E. Hipple, in his last desperate struggle, conceived the idea of insuring Adolph Segal's life and then killing both Segal and himself after arranging for the insurance to go to the depositors, who had been robbed of $5,300,000. It was learned today that three months ago Hipple tried secretly to have placed on Promoter Segal's life an insurance policy for $100,000. Had he been successful it is believed he would have taken out other policies in other companies.

The scheme failed, however, because of Hipple's manifest agitation and uncertainty as to details. It was shown upon investigation that Segal knew nothing of Hipple's efforts.

"Frank was very insistent," said this official. "He told me that he wanted $100,000 on Segal's life, and that Segal knew about it. He said that an examination of Segal would be unnecessary, and offered a large bonus for the accommodation. Of course, I refused."

District Attorney Bell is seriously considering bringing criminal prosecutions against the Sugar trust in connection with the looting of the trust company. An effort also is to be made to have the Federal authorities prosecute under the Sherman anti-trust law.

CUNEY ARREST IMPORTANT

Belief That Colored Man Can Throw Much Light on Recent Losses.

With the arrest Wednesday of Henry E. Cuneo, a colored book dealer, who was caught taking books from the document room of the United States Senate by Capitol Detective Fred M. Webster, the Capitol police believe they will be able to clear up the mysterious robberies, which have occurred in the document room during the last few years. For many years books in large numbers have been taken from the document room.

Detective Webster made several arrests in connection with the robberies, but in nearly every instance there has been a lack of evidence on which to hold the men.

Believe Others Implicated.

According to Mr. Webster, Cuneo was not alone responsible for the thefts, and an investigation is now being conducted in the hope that the entire matter will be cleared up when Cuneo is arraigned in police court on September 14.

Cuneo has been around the Capitol for a number of years, acting as a middleman for Representatives and Senators, who, it is alleged, wished to dispose of or obtain more copies of government documents than they were entitled to. It is said that he had considerable business along these lines, and that he made money out of his transactions.

Supplied Book Sellers.

He also, it is said, did business with book-sellers throughout the city, selling them books, which he bought from Congressmen.

RESIGNATION FOR TEACHER ACCUSED OF HUGGING

MORRISVILLE, Pa., Sept. 7.—Troubles of the high school here, accentuated by charges against Principal William A. Cawley of hugging pretty eighteen-year-old Frances Taylor, are about settled, as the result of a secret meeting of the school board, when Cawley agreed to resign January 1 next. Cawley is to remain in power during the meantime. The agreement with the board must be ratified, as the special meeting is not legal, because of being held on Sunday.
